SUPERVISION SUMMARY

This report is being submitted in regards to special conditions requiring Wilson to participate in substance abuse and mental health treatment programs. Since commencement of his supervised release, Wilson has participated in mental health counseling at Gateway Foundation. Reports from his counselor state that Wilson has made steady progress towards his treatment goals and appears stable. In response to the undersigned officer's request, the counselor stated he agreed with discharging Wilson from counseling at this time.

In regards to substance abuse treatment, Wilson successfully completed the 500 hour residential and transitional substance abuse treatment program while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons. Since his release from the Bureau of Prisons, Wilson has submitted to two monthly drug tests without any positive results.
